MOST IMPORTANT DUTY CONGRESS TO REDUCE EXPENSES AND TAXES

Declares President Coolidge In Message to National Body.

MOST OUR ILLS ARE DOMESTIC

Can Best Be Curbed by Paying Our Debt, Cutting Down Cost of Government and Lessening Tax Burden; Economic Law Best for Farming

By WILLIAM J. LOSI
Editorial Page Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON Dec. 3.—Congress' most important duty is to reduce the cost of government and provide for further tax reduction. President Coolidge declares in his annual message to the nation's legislature today.

The Government can do more to remedy the economic ills of the people by a system of real economy, in just as expenditure than can be accomplished through any other action he said.

"Nothing is more likely to produce real public confidence which is the cornerstone and the mainstay of prosperity, courage and enlarged business opportunity. With ample opportunity for employment at good wages, provide a larger market for agricultural products and put our country in a stronger position to meet the world competition in trade than a continuing policy of economy."

Rigid economy by the present session of Congress will pave the way during the next fiscal year for a reduction of taxes in conformity with scientific taxation principles. Mr. Coolidge said.

The message, written in the terse brevity to which Mr. Coolidge is noted, bluntly set forth the President's views on virtually every problem confronting the country and the administration. In crisp clear sentences Mr. Coolidge said:

"The public provisions of the law, we should be repaid."

"The Senate should approve the Harding-Hughes World Court proposal."

"The Administration will not call a disarmament conference until it is seen what action other countries take on the League of Nations conference proposal."

"Agriculture's chief problem is to find better markets and the government will help."

"Voluntary consolidation of railroads should be encouraged to be followed, if necessary, by governmental compulsion."

"Muscle Shoals should be sold or leased to private operators who will produce cheap fertilizer."

"Management of the Government's merchant fleet should be entirely centered in the Emergency Fleet Corporation."

"Our foreign relations are now in better shape than at any time in 12 years."

"Cancellation or remission of any part of the foreign debts will not be considered."

The national reclamation policy should immediately be given body by enactment of the recommendations of the federal fact finding commission."

"Care of veterans has been passed from a question of legislation to one of humane legislation."

"Supreme Court and criminal law procedure should be altered to relieve congestion and speed up justice."

"First, second and third class post masters and prohibition agents should be put under the civil service."

"The Navy must be maintained at full treaty strength and the Army's skeleton defense plans supported."

"Injunction provisions of the immigration law should be eliminated."

"The League of Nations is dead so far as the United States is concerned."

Mr. Coolidge opened his message with a declaration that the Union holds a position unsurpassed in all former human experience and declared the present state of the Nation is such that it may be regarded with encouragement and satisfaction by every American." He then swung into his recommendations taking up first economy.

Economy. "Our domestic ills are for the most part economic," he said. "We have an enormous debt to pay and we are paying it. We have the high cost of government to diminish and we are reducing it. But there remains a natural debt of $21,000,000,000 and some government expenses are $2,000,000 and we see no end to his reform. He left for the application of economy."

following these are increasing the deficit by $1,000,000 a year. Reduction of the costs of public administration everywhere will establish prosperity.

Taxation.

The country is feeling the direct result which came from the passage of the last revenue bill and under the assurance of the new tax reduction which the public will hope for no tinkering with the rate schedules at this session.

The publicity feature of the present law is unwisely and imprudent, and its Service Order No. 23, issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission July 25, 1922, on account of the emergency created by the strike of miners and railway workers, has been declared valid by the United States Supreme Court, and has been transferred by that body to the Circuit Court of Appeals for further proceedings consistent with the opinion.

This order directed carriers to give preference and priority to the movement of food for human consumption, feed for live stock, live stock, perishable products, coal, coke and fuel oil. It provided that in the supply of cars to coal miners carriers were to place, furnish and assign cars to mines suitable for loading and transportation of coal in succession as might be required for the following order of classes, viz: Class 1, such special purposes as may be specially designated by the commission; Class 2, fuel for railroads, ships, electric power and light gas, water and sewers; and governmental and other public institutions; Class 3, bituminous coal consigned to any Lake Erie ports for transhipment by water to ports upon Lake Superior; Class 4, commercial sizes of coal for domestic use; and, Class 5, other purposes.

The case, which the Supreme Court has disposed of on the ground that it contained no reason for direct appeal, had its origin in the indictment of a coal shipper who induced the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company to assign coal cars for the transportation of coal for Class 2 purposes which were intended to be used for, and in fact

"I know I have done wrong, please forgive me for not doing my duty and writing you before I am thankful to God and the good remedy He gave you, and would not take $500 for the good the first dose gave me. I have been bothered for many years with gas in my stomach and indigestion, but since taking May's Wonderful Remedy two years ago, have had no such trouble." Owner of Trees
Which Clog Sewers
Must Remove Them

Special to The Courier
MOUNT PLEASANT, Dec. 3.—At the regular meeting of council Monday evening complaints were heard on a sewer in College avenue, the trouble originating from roots of trees planted over the sewer dipping down into the sewer for moisture and clogging them. The owner of the trees will be notified by council to remove them.

Otto Klaus informed council that he had five signs who wished gas in West Vine street, and that the gas company would not furnish it. He was referred to the Chamberlain's Tablets.

A letter from the Memorial Association, thanking council for its activity in getting the Diamond in shape for the unveiling of the memorial on Armistice Day, was read.

A letter from the Uniontown solicitor asked Mount Pleasant to go in with other towns on contending the increase in gas rates. The matter was placed on file.

S. J. Shumaker of Bridgeport, whose truck is held for the breaking of a catch basin on Collage avenue, when he ran into another machine, told council the fault was with the driver of the coupe, but council ordered that Mr. Shumaker be held responsible for the hit.

The street committee reported that it had met with the burgess and had the following recommendations to offer.

First, three lights, with arms, be placed on the Diamond instead of the four there now that there is no building in Diamond street from Standpipe alloy to Main, nor from Horner's Alley to Main, that council raise the sidewalk along the Standier and Horner house to meet new sidewalk put down; that council put up signs to keep to the right! These were acted upon favorably.

Parking in the Diamond was held open until another meeting, and will still be permitted.

The light committee reported that the borough enters in a new light contract at the next meeting.

will bring a report in at that time. Two petitions were presented for sewers, one in Oak street and one in Spruce street. Ordinances were ordered drawn up for these. Estimates were read of the sewer assessment is Hinchman and Walnut streets, as drawn up by the Engineer Mr. Hamer who placed the entire cost of the Hinchman street sewer $1,324.72 and the Walnut street at $1,110.26.

FOUR LIBELS IN DIVORCE FILED

Four libels in divorce were filed today in court at Uniontown. They were:

John Baum of Franklin Township, from Anna Baum of California on grounds of cruel treatment. They were married 3 years ago at Oliver.

Anna Elizabeth Mitchell of Allegheny county. Cruelty is charged. They were married May 3, 1923, at Cumberland, Md.

Mary Boycheck of Waltersburg from Joseph Boycheck of McKeesport. Desertion is charged. They were married in 1884 in Hungary.

John Kirkley of Allison from Mary Kirkley of Brownsville on grounds of cruel treatment. They were married July 11, 1914 in Uniontown, Md.

When H. L. L. Morgan, forty-two, was arrested in Camden, N. J., charged with bigamy, he offered one of the most novel defenses ever heard. He denied he had ever been married to the woman with whom he was living, asserting it was his twin brother who had married her. He said he began to live with his sister-in-law as a joke, and that she could not tell him from his brother. He was held while police checked his story.

"Producers, distributors and exhibitors of moving pictures are influenced by a very sincere desire to make the industry an agency for good—good entertainment and wholesome lessons," said W. H. Ham, president of Allison from Mary Kirkley of Brownsville on grounds of cruel treatment. They were married July 11, 1914 in Uniontown, Md.

William T. Brown of Union street, Vanderbillt, was taken to the Union county jail last evening. Brown had been suffering from influenza for the past few weeks and the blues affected his mind.

The blues had crazed the man and he broke the windows in the home and drove out the family, who sought refuge in the home of a neighbor.

Plea for Statues of Authors

The citizens of Auch, the ancient capital of Gascony, have decided to erect a statue to D'Artagnan, hero of Alexandre Dumas' "The Three Musketeers" and "Twenty Years After."

In reality, of course, it is much more fitting to erect a statue to the world until Dumas called him into being. It is more than fitting to Charles de Bontz Chastagner, the original of Dumas' hero, who was born not far from Auch. It is really a shame to Dumas and the human imagination.

Everything that has made D'Artagnan memorable and international claim to a great master of romances—D'Artagnan is one of the many creations of poets and writers that have become more real than real men.

It is always a fine thing to see recognition of such, the New York symposiums. There might even be more statues to great characters of literature and fewer statues to little characters of "real life." While there's no harm in remembering a man who leaves a fountain or a park to a village, the men who have left Odysseus, Hamlet, Falstaff, Faust, Jean Valjean, and Natty Bumppo are, after all, the more deserving.

*At the TheatresThe Paramount

"WINE"—The feature picture today and tomorrow at the Paramount presents Clara Bow, Robert Agnew, Myrtle Stedman, Forrest Stanley, Huntly Gordon and Walter Long. It is the story of an American family, wealthy, well established in society, respected for position and standard of living, and the melting of its social status and weakening of its principles of living. The story is that of a big business man on the verge of ruin, who cast discretion and principles to the winds by allying himself with illicit liquor distribution to save the family home and his own financial position. His wife forgets her pride of social position; and their pretty debutante daughter falls into the giddy whirl of a younger set that revels too fast a pace for her welfare.

There may be skeptics who will doubt the veracity of the theme of the film play, but the odds "in the know," including newspaper reporters and federal liquor sleuths will reach for its credibility. It reflects a condition prevalent in many parts of the United States since the enactment of the national prohibition law.

The moral tone of the film is good and it should be valuable as a pictorial legend if conditions in regard to illicit liquor handling and the breadth of its effect as they now exist.

Friday and Saturday, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., will be seen in "Fast and Fearless."

The Soisson

"GALLOPING FISH," showing today at the Soisson, is a First National picture and is one of the best shown at this theatre in months. Louise Fazenda, Syd Chaplin, Ford Sterling and "Freddie" the seal are a riot! The plot starts in a theatre where a lonely little newly-wed, played by Syd Chaplin, drops in seeking diversion after he has quarreled with his bride of a few months. He is literally dragged into the plot when the manager of the "Divine Venus" who is performing a marvelous tank act with her trained seal collars him into assisting in smuggling the seal from the theatre. There in a heartless shyster trying to attach the seal and ruin lovely Undine's act. Freddie wakes fervently that he had succeeded before the evening, which winds up in a spectacular flood, is over. Anyone who had the idea that seals were useful only as coats will have an entirely new thought after watching Freddie do his stuff. Miss Fazenda, Chaplin and Sterling—every one of them a favorite comic—are the funniest trio that ever worked together on the screen. Del Andrews directed the comedy which offers seven reels of hilariously funny entertainment.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday Florence Vidor, supported by an all star cast, will be seen in "Christine of the Hungry Heart."

The Orpheum

"FEET OF CLAY"—A Paramount picture featuring an all star cast, provides splendid entertainment today at the Orpheum.

The story is of the brilliant, sophisticated sort in which DeMille has scored his greatest success. "Feet of Clay" is an eminently logical tale, with all the brilliancy of "Man-slaughter" and an absorbing theme. It centers around a most interesting type, a girl who goes from parties and putting at seventeen to marriage and responsibilities at twenty-one.

Vera Reynolds, the girl, picked overnight to play the leading feminine role in the production, Buttille considers the greatest real star material since the days when Gloria Swanson rose from the ranks. She's done great ingame work in "Ice-bound," "Prodigal Daughters," "Shadows of Paris," etc. But this is her first real chance.

The story is an interesting reverse of the old laborer coming home to find millionaire-cuckoo-wife stuff. DeMille, supreme master of contrast, swings from a guy, carefree millionaire's resort and the world's largest yacht to scenes in a cheap New York apartment, to a marvelous ball in a marvelous home.

The cast includes Rod La Roque, Victor Varconi, Ricardo Cortez, Julia Fay, Theodore Kosloff and Robert Edeson.

Thomas Meighan will be seen in "The Alaskan."
